

DEAD BODIES IN THE MORTUARY (A Candace McCauley P.I. Mystery Book 5)

When the owner of Goff and Sons Mortuary is found murdered and discarded on River Bend Road in Sand Ridge, the small village is shocked. Murders do not happen in the lake area. Candace McCauley, Private Investigator spends the weekend with her best friend from childhood, Sharon Mayes at Sharon's lake home. When word of the murder reaches them, Sharon shrugs it off since, according to her, John Goff was professional in his work but not well liked. They decide to spend the day visiting antique shops and enjoying local cafes. But when Sharon sees her deceased mother's unusual brooch under the glass display case in one antique shop, she is horrified. The brooch should have been buried with Anne Mayes. Before Candy can pursue the case of the brooch, the Mortician's wife, Vickie Goff is found murdered in the basement of the Mortuary. Sharon and Candy visit the local Psychic whose husband had an ongoing affair with Vickie. It is soon discovered that Anne Mayes was not the only deceased person whose valuables were stolen before burial. Candy sets up a meeting with the antique shop owner's vendor, Zach Phelps said to have leads in the stolen items. When Candy waits for him to arrive at the lake pavilion she realizes she is the next victim. A massive frame looms over her who is not Zach Phelps. She is saved from him by sheer luck but in the meantime Zach has been murdered. All three victims suffer deaths in the same manner. Candy must find the link between them all in order to find the killer. Unlikely suspects emerge and she must sort them out. If she fails, no one in Sand Ridge will be safe.
