

The Heritage of World Civilizations, Volume B: From 1300 to 1800 (6th Edition)

This comprehensive, accessible survey of world history has been extensively revised to provide an even more global and comparative perspective on the events and processes that have shaped our increasingly interdependent world. Written by leading scholars in their respective fields. Interactive map in each chapter provides readers with opportunities to explore the relationships between time and space in shaping world history. Volume B covers the period from 1300-1850. The Sixth edition now provides roughly the same amount of coverage for European and non-European regions. Combines unusually strong and thorough coverage of the unique heritage of Asian, African, Islamic, Western, and American civilizations, while highlighting the role of the world's great religious and philosophical traditions. For anyone interested in world civilization or world history.
