

At Home in New England: Royal Barry Wills Architects 1925 to Present

The now venerable firm of Royal Barry Wills was founded in a one-room office on Boston's Beacon Street in 1925. Initially fueled by word of mouth and occasional newspaper exposure, the firm gained admiration for Willss fresh take on various New England styles, including Georgian, Tudor, French Provincial, and Colonial American. Driven by the countrys desire for both aesthetic appeal and practicality, the firms popularity increased dramatically with its focus on the creation of modern homes inspired by the one-and-a-half-story Cape Cod houses, which perfectly balanced the classic and the new. Now run by his son, Richard Wills, the firm has been designing elegant private homes in the classically inspired Colonial New England tradition for more than eighty-five years. As time has passed, their Cape Cod-style homes have proven remarkably adaptable to the demands of contemporary life, while staying true to Willss original flair for intermingling past and present. This book features examples of the firms work from its founding to the present, with an emphasis on more recent houses that have been built throughout New England.
