For history lovers and journal fans comes a hilarious and heartbreaking . . . 99100% fantastic (A Fuse #8 Production, School Library Journal) story about a boy on a mission to find his long-lost father in the logging camps of Michigan. There are many things that 11-year-old Stanley Slater would like to have in lifemost of all, a father. But what if Stans missing dad isnt dearly departed after all? Armed with his stupendous scrapbook, full of black-and-white 19th-century advertisements and photos, Stans attempt to locate his long-lost hero/cowboy/outlaw dad is a near-death adventure fraught with pesky relatives, killer lumberjacks, and poisonous pies! His tale will leave readers in stitches, but not the kind that require medical attention. Praise for My Near-Death Adventures (99% True!) A knee-slapper of a debut featuring a narrator who is rather less than 99 percent reliable but 100 percent engaging. KirkusReviews[An] exuberant first novel. Publishers WeeklyStans story is full of his hilarious misunderstandings and overactive imagination.
