

Dublin: Grafton Street Treasure Hunt: Cryptic Edition (Treasure Hunt E-Books from Treasuredays Book 20)

Welcome to Number 20 in a series of treasure hunt walk e-books by Treasuredays Ltd. This is the second edition of the harder, adult version of our Dublin: Grafton Street route. The treasure hunt starts at St. Andrews Church and then heads through College Green and into the grounds of Trinity College. Home to the fabulous Book of Kells, Trinity boasts Oscar Wilde, Samuel Beckett, Jonathan Swift and Bram Stoker, author of Dracula, among its alumni. Then its along Grafton Street, Dublins premier shopping street, exploring Duke Street and Johnsons Court on either side as we go. The final stage of the treasure hunt takes in the greenery and fascinating statuary of St. Stephens Green park. Kindle Treasure Hunts are a great way to make a walk around town more fun, interesting and even educational. As you walk round you are given a set of questions to answer based on things you can see along the route. You can use them to explore a new area, or to find the interesting nooks and crannies that you may have missed in a familiar one. The 44 questions in this edition are designed to be fairly challenging. Most of the clues are written, but some are picture questions. Some are cryptic or require some basic general knowledge, and others are based on things on the route that may be tricky to spot. If you would prefer something more straightforward, for example if you are taking children with you, a family edition of the Hunt on the same route is also available from Amazon. This contains easier clues that should be quite straightforward to find and work out. As you solve each clue, you can record your answer using the notes function on your Kindle, or use your phone or just good old pen and paper if you prefer. The Hunt is divided into sections, and there is a link to check your answers at the end of each section. Our Kindle Treasure Hunts are designed for individuals or families and other small groups who are walking the route together. If you wish to do the Treasure Hunt as a competition in two or more separate groups, please visit the Treasuredays site for information on hunts which will allow you to make as many copies of the question sheets as you need. You should typically allow about 2-3 hours to complete the Hunt. But it may take longer if you stop for refreshments or retrace your steps to find clues you may have missed.
