

The Long Ride Home- Appomattox to Montgomery

This is a story of a young Confederate soldier, who fought in the first land battle of the war and went on to fight the last major battle at Appomattox Court House. He wrote many letters home and kept a daily journal of his struggles to return to Montgomery. A living family descendant of this young soldier re-enacted part of his journey home. Come relive this adventure with the author, a retired airline pilot who re-enacted Claytons ride home.
