

Biblical Food - Making Meaning of the Stories From Genesis

Are you sometimes confused by the Bible? You have read the stories but you don't grasp their significance. This book is an eye-opening account of God's Word as it reveals to youth and adults everywhere the purposes of His stories. It is explained with such simplicity that those who struggle reading the Bible will understand it. The stories outlined in the Book of Genesis are told in layman's terms with details and visuals added to increase comprehension. The stories of the creation are so clear that even children will understand. The stories of the patriarchs, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob are told with such clarity that you will see things that you have never envisioned before. The food for thought is a section which was designed to allow you to interact with the texts and reflect on the biblical circumstances as they relate to your life today. This is the first of a series of books to come which are designed to relay to the reader God's attributes through His love for mankind. Other books in the Biblical Food series will include: The Book of Exodus, The Book of Joshua, and Bible Stories from Judges. Once you are fed by this book, you will be invigorated by the rest of the series.
